What [redacted] told the detective

Colorado Springs Police Department case 2025-00416573. These are selected passages from the 22-page compiled offense report concerning October 31, 2025. Each heading identifies the officer and PDF page.

Detective Sean Medina, Crimes Against Children / Page 8

Medina recorded [redacted] raising concerns about his grandson and identifying former officer Levi Braun as someone he had previously approached. The extract begins and ends within a longer account.

grandson being a victim of child abuse at the hands of an unknown suspect. According to [redacted] the grandson, who was currently safe at home, had been previously observed with bruises and other injuries from an unknown source, but then said that these injuries were unrelated to the current situation. He did not provide specific details about any prior police reports or actions taken regarding these concerns, though he asserted that they had been investigated by former police officer Levi Braun. It should be noted that Officer Braun has not been an active police officer for several months. [redacted] claimed that Officer Braun (referred to as “Detective Braun” by

[redacted] expressed ongoing concerns about the lack of transparency regarding his grandson’s care and records at the school. They stated that they had been directed to Human Resources to obtain the records but had not received them despite multiple attempts. [redacted] said while he was on scene at the school, he was again referred

Detective Sean Medina / Page 9

[redacted] continued to explain a multitude of unrelated incidents and other conspiracy issues. He explained the "3M Corporation" and his son, John, were currently engaged in a legal matter related to the conspiracies. He did not provide specific details about how this was connected to the current disturbance.

As [redacted] continued to describe child abuse conspiracies, I informed him that I was a detective that specializes in Crimes Against Children and he then stopped providing the information and referred me to John and [redacted] for further clarification of the issues. I stood by with [redacted] as he was detained unhandcuffed, and staff informed officers that that [redacted] was not allowed on the property and [redacted] stated that this information was new to them and had not been communicated prior to their arrival.

The same narrative names the federal litigation and records that [redacted] disputed receiving notice excluding [redacted] Medina wrote that [redacted] did not give a specific connection between the lawsuit and the disturbance.

Reader copy | Identifying details redacted

Compare the October 31 accounts

The primary report and supplements contain different descriptions of the citations. For the charge formally entered in court, the citation and certified docket are the controlling comparison.

Responding Officer Carlos Espinoza / Page 15

Disposition: [redacted] was issued [redacted] for municipal trespass. John was issued E1481688 for municipal damage to private property.

Detective Trevor Kenoyer / Page 12

I stayed with Mr. Wingo until Officer's C. Espinoza/7601 and E. Reid/3175 arrived on scene and issued Mr. Wingo a citation for trespass and damage to property.

Who received the child during the earlier incident? / Page 21 behavior. Staff stated that the child was released to campus police during the prior incident and later handed over to the father. A letter was subsequently issued to the family, reiterating that the Detective Whitney Barrett attributed this account to staff. [redacted] recall a release to [redacted] The dispatch log records police contact. A release log and the original video could identify when and to whom the child was released.

Looking for the underlying footage / Pages 11, 12 and 15

AXON BODY 4 CAMERA FOOTAGE IS AVAILABLE.

Body worn camera was utilized on this call. This report is merely a synopsis of the relevant facts of the investigation. It is not intended to be a verbatim account of every individual I spoke with. This report does not reflect every word spoken by this officer, other officers, witnesses, suspects, or victims. For a verbatim account, please see body worn camera footage. This officer did not review the body worn camera footage to prepare for this report.

Kenoyer described hearing the disturbance from Safe Passage at about 10:42 a.m. He later recorded reviewing video labeled 09:29–09:45. The native footage and the camera clock settings would allow readers to compare these times.

Reader copy | Identifying details redacted